

Review Excerpts

“Wow! You did a fantastic job and I am still hearing from our guests who thought you were awesome. Again, I can't thank you enough.”

-Mary Jo DiSalvo/City of Dublin

“The Dublin OH Irish fest is AWESOME and I saw a LOT of old friends!! I expected Dervish and Slide to rock my world but the surprise of the weekend was Lone Raven: beautiful, gifted fiddle players in Liz and Kara along with guitar 'God' Neil Jacobs with great performances from Craig Markley and Sid Omasta really blew me away!!

-Mike Dugger/Glen Road

“We are so glad you had fun and that the night was such a huge success. We also heard many compliments, and more than one person said you guys could have played on any stage in the world that night. My feet haven't touched the ground since the sound check. Thank you for bringing your friends and putting on such an incredible show.”

-Mike Loughley/Shamrock Club

“Thank you! Thank you! Absolutely the best concert of the year!”

-Vita Marinello/Grandview Library

“Thanks a million for the great concert last night! Everyone loved the show, and we had comment after comment.”

-Ron Emoff/OSU

“Thank you so much for playing in Bellville. Your performance was fantastic and the people loved it. Your adapting to the limitations of the stage was amazing. It looked very well coordinated although I'm sure it was a hassle. People we run into who saw your performance up here are still commenting on how much they enjoyed it. You folks made quite an impression. The size of the crowd was at the maximum for this venue. We never know what to expect. We are pleased that you have interest in coming back again and we're sure the people will look forward to your return.”

-Highlands of Ohio

“Sunday evening's performance by Lone Raven was a perfect finale for the “Harmony in the Parks” summer series. Kara Markley has a warm, clear voice and sings with impeccable intonation. The instrumentalists are highly versatile and switch effortlessly from one instrument to another, from number to number, according to the demands of the scoring. Attended by what seemed to be the largest crowd ever, the enthusiastic crowd rewarded the performers with rich applause.”

-The Delaware Gazette

“Whether performing their own compositions or unique arrangements of traditional material, Lone Raven's five part vocal harmonies and diverse instrumentation takes Celtic Music on a new and exciting journey.”

-Dublin Irish Festival
